

DATA7001 Introduction to Data Science

Group Meeting Memorandum 01

Group 02

Members: Cheng Hu, David Lynn, Alice Schulz, Jinglei Xiang, Qing Zheng

Individual contributions since the previous checkpoint:

- Cheng Hu created a shared GitHub repository for the group, uploaded the data, and agreed to provide an introduction speaking section for the pitch presentation.
- David Lynn created the PowerPoint slides for the Project Pitch Presentation, provided preliminary visualisations of the data, and shared resources.
- Alice Schulz prepared Group Meeting Memorandum 01, and investigated potential research questions based on the dataset.
- Jinglei Xiang identified and shared with the group a potential candidate for a dataset, and investigated its data quality as a part of preparing for the pitch.
- Qing Zheng performed preliminary EDA and visualisations, as part of investigating the data and preparing for the pitch.
- All members actively participated in and contributed to group meetings, held 14/08, 19/08, and 21/08.
- All members discussed and agreed upon the required next steps, outlined in table below.

Plans and responsibilities until the next checkpoint:

Action item	Responsible members	Target date
Cheng to provide speaking part for the pitch presentation: provide introduction.	Cheng	21/08/25
David and Alice to provide speaking parts for the pitch presentation 'research questions' section.	David, Alice	21/08/25
Jinglei to provide speaking part for the 'data quality' section of the pitch presentation.	Jinglei	21/08/25
Qing to provide speaking part for the 'stakeholders' slide in the pitch presentation.	Qing	21/08/25

Risks or blockers (if any):

 Some issues that may impact our progress include:

- Time constraints for deciding on research questions and determining data quality prior to the pitch presentation. To address, we decided on concrete dates and times to have actions completed by.
